JUNIORS

L. to r. Donald Gross, Connie Kirsch, Donna Crain, Frances McDaniel, Miss Rosemary Hoellers.

The Junior Class of 1932-33 was composed of four members: Frances McDaniel, president; Donna Crain, vice-president; Connie Kirsch, secretary; and Donald Gross, treasurer. Our advisors were Miss Hoellers and Mrs. Lucas.

The class operated the lunch stand at home basketball games. On May 7, they sponsored the annual Junior-Senior prom and banquet. A blue and white starlight theme was chosen by the class. The banquet was held in the American Legion Club Room and served by the Altar Society. Johnnie Lyons played for the dance held in the American Legion Hall.

The class play "A Letter From Mexico" was presented October 31-November 2, under the direction of Miss Hoellers.

Donald Gross played basketball on the B team. Connie Kirsch, Frances McDaniel, and Donna Crain played on the girls team. Donna was on the first six all season while Connie started most of the games. Frances substituted in every game.

Frances was Assistant Editor on the school paper. Donna acted as Business Manager and Connie as Advertising Make-up Artist. Frances and Donna both served as Librarians and on the Student Council.

The plot centers around a perfectly normal Oklahoma family who masquerade as Indians for the purpose of scaring away their son's bride-to-be.

This was a royalty play written by the well-known author, Jay Tobias, and produced by special arrangement with the Drama Guild of Boston, Massachusetts.

The Little Monarchs had a successful season with 7 wins and 4 losses. They placed second in the LCAC with 5 wins and 3 losses. Jack Bartlett led the way for the midget monarchs with 139 points.

Due to the graduation of last years stars the Blunt grades managed but 3 wins in 12 starts. Since only two players graduates the prospects for next year are bright. Johnny Lindbloom, an eighth grader, was high scorer for the grades with 67 points.
